All Glory to Convention

All glory to the 1966 Grand Convention of Theta. Fraternity has taken on new meanings as the decades pass and Theta's widespread influence is most rewarding to the many who serve her with such love and devotion. My good wishes for the future.

JESSIE BALDRIDGE LEBRECHT
Phoenix, Ariz.

It was heartbreak to me not to attend the Grand Convention. I was all ready to make reservations when an automobile accident so seriously injured my twenty-year-old grandson (son of Theta daughter, Peg) that I felt I could not leave home.

This would have been my 21st convention!

To the undergraduates I want to write just a few lines. The "old gal" still has plenty of pep, and, as you all would say, I was all set to "blast off" for the Bahamas. But, were I in a wheel chair, I would still have the beautiful memories of what my fraternity has meant to me. No one can ever take that blessing away from those who hold their loyalty close throughout the years.

Furthermore, my Alpha Psi, Lawrence, sisters will remember that I said I was going to write something titled, "I Believe." Because a few college students step out of line all of you are blamed. How well I know that the majority of undergraduates are clear-eyed, purposeful, wonderful human beings. Please, always love Kappa Alpha Theta. You will never regret it!

It's Nice to Be Appreciated

The Detroit Alumnae Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta voted unanimously to extend their congratulations for the new format of the Theta Magazine. We all enjoy the high quality content and the general excellence of presentation. Besides, we read it!

On behalf of Alpha Rho chapter at South Dakota we would like to thank you for the fine Theta Magazine. We enjoy the articles and letters to much. Sometimes Alpha Rho seems like a small world unto itself but with each issue we are reminded of the hundreds of girls throughout the nation, all striving for the same ideals and goals. This feeling makes Theta membership even more meaningful.

And So It Began

I was interested in the feature on Dr. Palmer in the Summer 1966 Issue of the Theta Magazine (page 17). I do regret not having had the opportunity of adding my few words of praise for Dr. Palmer and telling the recent Thetas how the Institute became our national philanthropy. Here it is—for what it is worth!

I was grand president through the war years, 1942-46, and had been on Grand Council for two previous years. During this time there was a growing general demand among our alumnae chapters and clubs for a philanthropic project which would interest ALL Thetas in EVERY locality. It was a big order! Many suggestions came from various areas and all of them were given consideration. At a Council meeting it was decided I would visit Wichita and investigate this "Institute of Logopedics" about which our local alumnae were so enthusiastic but which was so unknown to us.

Not long after, I arrived in Wichita and was taken by local Thetas to the Institute to meet Dr. Palmer, his wife, the small staff and volunteer workers, many of whom were Thetas, and to witness the work being done for the children. Immediately I understood why the Thetas devoted so many hours to this project. It was a new approach to a dreaded affliction. The need for such care and treatment; the possibility of research; and the enthusiasm, ability, foresight, sincerity and devotion of Dr. Palmer made me realize that this was THE project for Kappa Alpha Theta.

At the 1946 convention in Pasadena—the first convention after World War II and a changing world—three projects were adopted as "trial balloons"—the Merchant Marine Library Association, Foster Parents' Plan for War Children and the Institute of Logopedics. The last became more and more popular and now twenty years have passed and the Institute has grown and become famous due to Dr. Palmer's leadership, the vital and increasing need for such care and in a small way to Kappa Alpha Theta's early and continued financial support.

Initial-ese

What about using so many initials, instead of full titles, in the magazine? Sometimes I'm confused. For instance, what does AWS stand for?

ROBERTA EIKELBERRY
Princeton, N. J.

◆ AWS is Associated Women Students, a national college organization. Initials save precious space for groups with long names (like AAUW, YWCA). We welcome your comments on this, however, will gladly write out terms that confuse.—EDITOR.

THE COVER: Probably a lot of Thetas who turned up at the Grand Bahama Hotel with red noses and peeling shoulders got their sunburn on the trip to Grand Convention from West Palm Beach, Florida, via boat. A four hour trip via the M/S Grand Bahama, a 160-foot luxury liner, there was plenty of room for sunning and singing while a luscious luncheon was served en route. Many Thetas also rode the boat returning to the states after convention. The picture shows the rollicking crowd of convention-bound Thetas, just as they docked at West End, all set for Grand Convention.

Quotation for Autumn

Up in New England they call good, honest people of strong character "squares." Margaret Chase Smith of Maine said a few months ago: "What we need in this country is more squares." Let every one of us be "a square" in the fraternity system, devoting our lives to the performance of our responsibilities and the brotherhood of man rather than the singleness of living.

—ASSOCIATE JUSTICE TOM C. CLARK, Grand Convention speaker

YOUR EDITOR HAS A NOTION that autumn may find you just as breathless as we are. Summer goes by whoosh, and where does the time go? Summer this year started out with convention in the Bahamas, then for your editor a writers' conference at Indiana University, plus young people spilling in and out of the house as our college-age son and daughter came home, brought friends to visit, emptied our refrigerator and kept the record player, the radio, TV and lots of conversation going all at the same time. If it was confusing, then we love confusion.

As for the magazine, slowly, steadily, the pages of copy for the Autumn Issue were prepared amid all this and placed in the precious pile for mailing to the printer. As we worked we kept in mind the replies to the questionnaire sent out last year to random Thetas (names pulled from the mailing list, country-wide) and to our Grand Council and district presidents. As the year wears on we will try to implement what we believe to be our readers' wishes as to content and format, as relayed to us in the replies to this questionnaire.

What is read in the magazine? If we can believe the questionnaire alumnae and college girls agree somewhat on what they like. Alumnae place personality sketches first, then new chapter house stories, followed by honorary and initiate listings. College girls like the honorary listings, then speak for the personality stories, followed by new chapter house stories and the initiate listings. Not surprisingly, alumnae read the obituaries, the college girls don't (they were last on the college list!).

One feature which came out badly in the questionnaire replies was the reviews of books by Theta authors. Many seem to feel that book reviews can be found in so many other magazines that they are not necessary in ours. Anyone want to speak up in their favor? If not, they just might get "phased out" to make room for other material.

Since from time to time Grand Council and your editor think maybe we should eliminate chapter letters, it is interesting to note that chapter letters are the single most important feature leading Thetas to open the magazine. In answer to the question, "What feature do you usually turn to first?" nearly everybody said they turned first to their own chapter letter. Once into the magazine, then they leaf through to see what else they might like to read.

Grand Council was asked to evaluate the worth of the various features. The articles on ethics and morality (cheating, drinking), received first rating with them, followed by the stories on education and college problems. Inspirational speeches came in third.

Well, everybody can't read everything in the magazine (except for your editor who reads every word and comma and exclamation mark). We hope for something in each issue for each reader, however, and to that goal pledge our earnest efforts in a continuing search for the best. And now to coming deadlines:

Active chapter editors: November 1. Due: 100-word shortie letter on the best example in your chapter of loyalty to Theta.

All editors and others: December 15. Due: General items about Theta for Spring Issue, 1967.

Send copy to Mrs. Herbert L. Garrard, 10 Heather Lane, Route 3, Noblesville, Ind. 46060.

BUILD A BETTER YOU

"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditations of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord." Psalm 19:14.

◆ Rudyard Kipling once said with a great deal of insight that "words are the most powerful drug used by mankind." Whether words are restorative drugs or deadly poisons depends, however, not upon the words themselves but upon the character of the speaker. Although one may seek to conceal the nature of his inner being by a profusion of golden words, his attempt will reek of shameful insincerity and poisonous hypocrisy, "for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh." (Matthew 12:34.) Our thoughts and personal meditations must, therefore, be attuned to God and His love before our words can take on the restoring power that we so deeply desire for them.

If our public words and our meditations are acceptable in the Lord's sight we have succeeded as heralds and witnesses. If in private they are acceptable, we have by God's grace succeeded in life. For then we are either speaking or meditating "as if Christ were at our elbow" or at least as if we should not be perturbed to look around and find Him there. After all, that is the task.

"Your task—to build a better world," God said./I answered, "How? /This world is such a large, vast place,/So complicated now,/And I so small and useless am,/There's nothing I can do."/But God in all His wisdom said,/"Just build a better you!"

"Build a Better You" was one of the Devotions used to open the 1966 Grand Convention sessions. It was written by Jerry Floyd, president, Delta Zeta, Emory, who was also winner of the convention Leadership Award.

CAMPUS MORALITY

There is more sex on campus, more sex per person, more talk about it and more display of it, and more pressure for sexual freedom than ever before. Furthermore, sadly enough all this is taken for granted; students feel no need to justify it. This outburst of sex-anxious living is due considerably to indulgent parents, confused clergy, permissive counselors and to the greater availability of the means to prevent pregnancies.

Students live under the intense pressures of our sex-saturated society. Patterns of early dating—formal dances at ten, steady dates at thirteen, driving your own car at sixteen—such patterns mean that students arrive at college already jaded and soured on petting and the lesser forms of sex interest, so it takes more intoxicating experiences to give any thrill. Clothing styles, the Madison Avenue exploitation of sex, the movies and literature add up to intense erotic stimulation. Also there are more opportunities.

At the same time our society denies young people their natural fulfillment. Laws and taboos, the demands of longer schooling and jobs

by Dr. Robert H. Hamill

*Dean, Marsh Chapel
Boston University*

and military service all require of young people unnatural restraint. One way out is marriage, and happily this is now widely accepted on the American campus. Otherwise the consequences are mostly damaging, for some students break the sexual code and feel guilty but have not the religious maturity to handle that guilt.

Still another cause of the sex revolution is that students consider sex the cure for loneliness. Sex becomes a cure for anxiety.

No doubt youth are the victims of our social hypocrisy, but this has always been so. Young men fight the wars arranged by their elders, and die for the sins of their ancestors. The remedy is not to turn young people loose to their passions but to reform society so there is less hypocrisy. This will require that society control the sexual stimulation in advertising, restrain erotic material in the press and movies and the whole public relations culture, and reform the economic order which exploits sex for its profit.

Meanwhile, before that gets accomplished, I want to talk straight to you who are the younger generation. You are victimized by the culture; customs and taboos load on you a burden not your own. But I do you the dignity of expecting from you behavior better than my generation displayed. Why better? Because otherwise there is no improvement. If society is to improve, someone has to improve it. Why not you? If you behave like everyone else, that is not good enough; not good enough at all!

Fulfillment in your life will never come by conforming to the prevailing mores. It will come only by sacrifice, and you must sacrifice several popular notions: the notion that sex is a private matter only, the notion that pleasure is the test of morality, the notion that the new is always better than the old.

When students ask for relaxed parietal rules, for instance, some of them throw tantrums, kicking and screaming for what they want. But students are not always right. The university cannot grant students such facilities for sexual experiments as do not exist anywhere else in society. Just because a standard is old is no proof it is wrong. If all sex standards are called prudish, then patriotism might be called sentimental, or scholarship be called effeminate.

An undisciplined person is not human, but an untamed animal. If he cannot deny himself immediate pleasure, he loses his capacity to enjoy it later on. If a person gets everything he wants there is no excitement in having it, and no satisfaction.

True love is never free from law. As we know, the theological climate today is permissive; it celebrates freedom from the law. True indeed, but we are free to surpass the law, not free to fall below it. Man lives beyond the law, not outside it.

One mark of a mature person is this: he knows the limits of his own capacity for self control, and he will not put himself into a situation more tempting than he can handle. The immature person, on the other hand, insisting on unlimited liberty, boasts, "I can handle myself in any situation," an echo of the braggart who boasts, "I can handle my liquor." When students ask for privacy "to study together," they may be tempting themselves deliberately or they may be blind to the nature of their own human nature. To say that mind is always able to control the body is a rationalist illusion. It does not do justice to the sexual dynamics of life. The mature person knows he needs restraints, both self-restraint and the limitations of law, for what a person calls a broad mind may be only a disguise for a stretched conscience.

I am convinced that what we now need is a new common sense code of sexual conduct. I offer such for your consideration, with great thanks to an article by Dean Robert E. Fitch in The Christian Century, October 7, 1965. Dean Fitch suggests such points as these:

1. I am responsible for my own sex conduct. The pressures are intense, and there is a widespread rebellion against any code at all, but for me it is no alibi to say that everyone else is doing it. That isn't true, and even if it were, even if all the world lost its sanity and only one person believed what others refuse, I will hold to what I believe to be good.

2. Either I will control sex or sex will control me. One or the other will be master. I control other things. It would be silly to say sex makes its own rules. I will make sex answer to me. I am in control.

3. Sex is for humans, not for animals. People are much more delicate and complicated creatures, and for us sex is a subtle thing which only sensitive, only tender people can appreciate. When sex becomes too familiar and too available it loses its fascination; and when reduced to biology it becomes ordinary, even vulgar. Sex belongs to mature and sensible people.

4. Sexual compatibility is not the first requirement for happy marriage. Two people can be sexually compatible and be otherwise miserable. Sex is no guarantee of love. Conversely, two people can be happy without sexual compatibility, although this is certainly not ideal. Marriage depends upon a lot more than sex—it requires love and loyalty for better and for worse; it requires high performance in house-keeping, job keeping, child rearing, and a basic agreement on what is important and what's right, and a faithfulness to each other—and premarital relations cannot test these things.

5. Sex is social. Personal, yes; private to be sure; there is a hidden, secretive quality that belongs to the mystery of sex. But also social. Sex ramifies out into my job, my study, my religion, certainly into my personality and my basic style of life. What I do about sex affects my life as a citizen. Sex is social.

Such a code may help some student find his way through the moral jungle of the modern campus. For some two hundred years now, we moderns have been told to throw off our ancient taboos, act on our impulses, yield to our desires, and live in freedom. This was necessary, no doubt wise counsel. We did throw off restraints and we do live in freedom. Now comes the time to put on the brakes. We human beings are neither wise nor wholly good. We need protection from our own impulses, we need control—and some controls we will have, either controls imposed upon us, or much preferably, controls we impose upon ourselves.

Jesus made it clear that what defiles a man is not what happens to him from the outside, but what he plans and decides on the inside.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

THE 47TH GRAND CONVENTION is but a memory as we begin another biennium. This is my second term as your Grand President and I am ever cognizant of the honor and the responsibility and the opportunity for service. ♦ The strength of a fraternity is threefold—the understanding of the college chapter members of what a fraternity is and the possibilities it holds, the loyalty of the alumnae, and the wise administration of district and national officers. ♦ If you will ponder these three, you will note that each leads to the other and a perfect circle is formed. Kappa Alpha Theta has grown and will continue to flourish only if the segments of the circle fulfill their purpose. As we contemplate the next two years I ask each member of our fraternity to rededicate herself to the precepts of our founders and to give in service. ♦ I firmly believe that our fraternity is a great training school for leaders and that the young women of today who are members have an opportunity through their leadership in civic and cultural projects to prove the value of Kappa Alpha Theta. ♦ Our 60,000 members hold the possibility of a powerful force in a disturbed generation. Let us not betray the trust.

VIRGINIA S. EDWARDS

BAHAMA IN BRIEF

"Convention is an opportunity to rededicate ourselves to the ideals of our founders, to envision the vastness of a great national fraternity and to plan and dream for the future. Attendance at a Grand Convention is a great moment in any Theta's life." So spoke Grand President Jinny Edwards in her keynote address at the 47th Theta convention held June 12-17, 1966 at Grand Bahama Hotel on Grand Bahama Island.

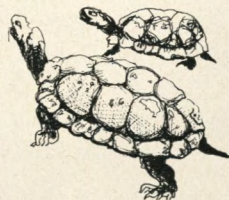

In complete agreement with this inspiring statement were the 606 Thetas registered at the convention (plus some 75 more husbands and guests) making it the largest convention in Kappa Alpha Theta history.

Theme of the convention was Learn Today—Lead Tomorrow and the plea for leadership among fraternity people was paramount in most discussions and speeches, from Panhellenic delegate Hofstead's early speech bespeaking greater leadership in college Panhellenics to Dean Shofstall's concluding speech at the banquet (see page 17) when he equated the need for fraternity pioneering with leadership.

The main accomplishments of the convention can be cited in terms of the complete unity of the group, the friendliness of everyone, the achieving of frank and free discussions of the sorority recommendation system, emphasis on high standards, emphasis on connecting ritual with life, and excellence of the legislative system embodying a calm discussion of business. In addition, the alumnæ "Walkaround," an idea mart with displays of work materials for chapter and club use, came in for special praise.

Expressed in more personal terms, some of the comments from Thetas were:

"After this week, I think of the Grand President as my best friend. I can't wait to tell my chapter!"—A college delegate.

"The greatest thing about convention was the legislative session. I've always thought people with different views should be able to discuss them calmly, and now I've seen this done."—A college delegate.

"From all reports I receive from the delegates I know the 47th Grand Convention was a remarkable success."—A district president.

"I enjoyed being with the Thetas. They're a great bunch." Associate Justice Tom C. Clark.

To recap the general plans which led to these encomiums: Registration and Niké took place late Sunday afternoon, June 12. The morning of Monday opened with general business and the president's keynote address. Then

These past officers at convention named themselves the "happy has-beens." Happy? Yes, it fits. Has-beens? Hardly. Their interest and activity in Theta continue. L. to r., Doris Jenkins French; Pauline Brannock Moore; Evelyn Widman Tunnicliffe; Mary X. McCarthy Plummer; Esther Elzey Cleaves; past presidents Hazel Baird Lease, Ellen Bowers Hofstead, Letty Henderson Munz; Virginia Chain Schmid; Florence Benner Wylie, Willie Trost Shattuck and Flivver Whalton Little.

◀ No Thetas at convention were older in years, nor younger in spirit than the Lambda, Vermont duo, Leirion Johnson Appleton, 95 (left), and Grace A. Johnson, 93, who traveled from Boston to the Bahamas (and also traveled to Banff in 1964). Leirion, as a 73-year Theta, and Grace, a 74-year one, were given 75-year pins by President Jinny Edwards since they will reach 75 years during the next biennium.

the rest of Monday and all day Tuesday were given over to separate meetings of college and alumnae seminars. Meetings became joint again on Wednesday and Thursday when business was transacted, major reports were given and officers were elected.

In between there was fun and frolic, notably the awards dinner on Tuesday night (for winners see page 16); the district sing, also Tuesday night, when District V became winner for presentation of the prettiest song and District II for the most original song; and fun night, "Calypso Capers," on Wednesday night, when everyone appeared in costume and best skit honors were won by District XII and XVII, funniest by Districts VII and IX, and most original by District XI.

At other times those who had time and inclination (many delegates had the inclination, but little time!) could be seen swimming in the kingsize pool at the hotel, watching the limbo dancers on the patio, or snapping their fingers rhythmically to the tunes of the calypso band.

Hit of convention were tote bags (shown well in pic below) prepared by convention Executive Committee with the help of Miami Alumnae Chapter members. Some 8,400 separate felt pieces had to be cut and pasted on the bags, which as completed showed the outline of Grand Bahama Island.

The kick-off for the 1970 convention, which will celebrate Theta's 100th anniversary came at Bahama (see page 34). Plans for the centennial are already underway. The in-between convention; in 1968, will be held at Mackinac Island, Michigan.

Fifty-year Thetas were so lively that many of them eluded the photographer. Those whom the photographer snared were l. to r., Lucy Ames Edwards, Beta Beta, Randolph-Macon; Rachel Williams Shields and Catherine Tillotson McCord, Alpha, DePauw; Gladys Lynch Bath, Eta, Michigan; and Mary Reese Mantz, Alpha Mu, Missouri, also Theta's parliamentarian.

The Right To Choose

by Virginia Speidel Edwards

Excerpts from President's Keynote Address

◆ Two years ago at the 1964 Grand Convention at Banff, the present Grand Council was elected to serve you for the biennium. This has been a quiet Council of quiet strength. It has been a Council which has examined existing laws of Kappa Alpha Theta, studied the newest methods of mechanized equipment for Central Office, evaluated the present recommendation system, thoroughly analyzed the housing loans, studied the possibility of future extension, evaluated the training given new members and has conscientiously asked, "Are we what we say we are?"

Most of all the question, "Are we what we say we are?" has ever been in our minds. The answer to this can only rest with individual chapters and individual members. If we are maintaining a high scholastic standing on each campus, if we are, both as college and alumnae members, giving a fair share of time to leadership, if we have done away with juvenile stunts and practices in actuality as well as in theory, if we have as individuals maintained the highest of personal standards, then we are indeed what we say we are.

The concern of this Council has been fourfold—to preserve the fraternity system, to keep Kappa Alpha Theta strong, to help each college chapter maintain maximum strength and to give every possible aid to individual members of the fraternity.

It is not new for fraternities to be subject to pressures and it is not new for campus customs to change, but in this biennium there have been pressures and changes of note. In the late winter of 1965, these events reached a climax and it was evident that the two pressures that exceeded all others were: 1) to relax rules and regulations on campuses 2) to attack the recommendation system of sororities.

Relevant to the first of these, D. J. Robertson, dean of the University College, which is the freshmen division of the University of North Dakota, wrote: "We deans hear a lot of talk, some of it directed at us, from students demanding freedom from adult control over their personal behavior . . . If you are one of the intelligentsia, they tell us, you don't have to conform to convention and moral code. Forget it . . . One of life's axioms has always been that you can't have freedom without responsibility. You will be truly educated only when you realize that knowledge must be combined with morality if it is to lead to wisdom."

To return to the pressures against fraternities—there have been demands for constitutions, for membership statements, for assurances that there are no discriminating clauses in laws or procedures. Theta has never had any laws in regard to race, religion, or national origin. We have placed our Constitution on file with administrations, not with transient faculty or student groups. We have signed statements whenever we could in good faith according to our laws. When we could not, we have submitted statements of our own. In the spring of 1965 the attacks took a new direction. The recommendation system was attacked.

Since time immemorial, men and women have secured positions and been admitted to colleges and universities on the basis of back-

Our President Says . . .

To be a member of Grand Council is a constant challenge to keep the fraternity up with the times and at the same time retain those fundamentals that build great women. The leadership of any organization such as a fraternity has to be aware of the changing times and has to know how to communicate with youth, how to see their viewpoint and how to portray the viewpoints of other generations to them.

College chapters are often amazed to find the deep concern that the national officers have for every member of the fraternity and to discover the lengths to which they will go to provide help and to encourage mature growth. It should be no surprise, for such care is the true meaning of fraternity.

ground knowledge known as recommendations or references. Educational institutions have always recognized that not all schools fit all people and not all people fit all schools and each has screened its own to its own best advantage. So it is with women's fraternities. Our aim is to pledge those who show evidence of contributing through the true meaning of fraternity. It may well be that a student can be an academic success and fulfill the purpose of the institution of learning but be a complete failure as a member of a fraternity. It is not possible to base fraternity selection on school selection. One hundred percent pledging is an ideal, not a possibility.

Wheeler McMillen, in the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin said, "A screening committee in a Philadelphia suburb recently asked a group of high school seniors, candidates to go abroad as exchange students, 'If someone wanted to know why Americans enjoy such a high standard of living, what explanation would you give?' The youngsters were stumped . . . The true answer to the question can be set out, I think . . . in these four words—the right to choose. The American has always had a right to choose his job, unhampered by law or custom. Free to select the work he likes, he has been more productive than if he were compelled to do something else. He has had the right to use his earnings as he wishes, after taxes. He may save, invest or spend, and his freedom to buy what he pleases pours incentive into every part of our industrial complex. He has had the right to choose his education, his religion, his home, his public servants. He has had the right to make his own decisions, right or wrong, the right to risk failure or to gain success. This right to choose has been called individual liberty, private enterprise, capitalism, the American way . . . But it all boils down to the right to choose."

Today, as the fraternity world faces many attacks, let us not give away our protection, our ability to meet the future. Let us not give away our rights as an autonomist group. We are a friendship group, a voluntary association existing in a land that was established by those who sought freedom and who believed in life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. If the fraternity system ever dies, I strongly believe it will be because its own members gave it away. Let us preserve the fraternity system and keep the right to choose.

What They Said

Marjorie Montrose Christiansen, Iota, Cornell, dean of student affairs, Sarah Lawrence College, speaking on manners and morals before the college seminar: We must be able to handle our own impulses in such a way that they do not injure anyone ever. So I will speak to you of three things—Faith, Hope and Love. Keeping Faith is the foundation of living . . . Hope makes life worth living . . . The Love that gains is in the true giving of self. So I charge each of you to live by faith, hope and love. It is amazing what one voice can do, what one person insisting on high standards, is able to accomplish. Fraternities have a special function in this day of tarnishing ideals—to show that theirs are ideals of gold and true worth and not some-time things.

Tom C. Clark, Delta Tau Delta, Associate Justice, Supreme Court of the United States, speaking on "Come, Worthy Greeks," before the convention body: The fraternal system stands today as an auxiliary to higher education, now grown to some 200 groups of over 10,000 chapters at over 500 colleges. There has grown up among them a fraternal ideology which bids fair to be an eternal flame. It is for us to make it so. We need first to bring unity of action for the betterment of our colleges to our various groups. Second, we must teach fraternity people that it is the responsible individual that counts. It is particularly important for fraternity people to shoulder their responsibilities. Third, fraternities must have a national purpose that will contribute to the betterment of their day (as, Theta's support of Logopedics). Only thus can we be stamped with the immortal spirit of human understanding.

Walter P. Shofstall, Sigma Tau Gamma, dean of students, Arizona State University, speaking on "Pioneer or Perish" at the convention banquet: Unless they offer more than just another club, fraternities will become obsolete. They must pioneer or perish. Pioneering means offering each prospective fraternity member a worthwhile and unique learning experience such as she cannot find elsewhere in the university. Pioneering means dedication of pledges and actives to the spiritual heritage of a fraternity. Pioneering means teaching responsibility for behavior, particularly in the fields of morality and academic achievement. Pioneering means returning to a dedicated belief in God and eternal truths. Pioneering means that the individual must become part of the group without ever being lost in the group. In essence, leadership is another word for pioneering. Always remember, "If we do not dream today, tomorrow will belong to those who do."

FRATERNITY TODAY

by Ellen Bowers Hofstead

NPC Delegate

Changes affecting higher education are occurring at a rate greater than at any time in history and some of these have definite implications for fraternities. Increased size of campuses has been accompanied by an improved quality in the academic level of the student bodies which are also more seriously motivated. Fraternities cannot ignore this nor the increased sophistication of the high school graduate. Pledge programs and pledge requirements must, and I am sure will, be adjusted accordingly.

The twelve-month campus, greatly increased graduate enrollment, more employed students due to increased costs of education all have implications for fraternities. You may be sure your officers are well aware of these trends.

If we are to take an intelligent look at the college campus and fraternities we must be aware of current trends in our nation, since both the campus and fraternities reflect these trends. Why are our basic rights as voluntary associations being challenged? Why do so many fail to understand that membership in any private organization is not a civil right but a personal privilege? Just as this privilege may be accorded or withheld at the will of the membership, so may the person invited accept or decline the invitation to join.

Private, voluntary associations do have certain rights guaranteed to them by the First, Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States. As we consider these rights in the light of some trends today we might well agree with the statement made by William E. Stevenson of Oberlin College when he said: "Our rights are being diminished by imperceptible erosion, hence many are not even aware that a peril exists."

On October 14, 1965, American college fraternities won an important victory in obtaining certain exemptions from federal control in the 1965 Higher Education Act. The victory, while not complete, was a step in the right direction and an expression of the overwhelming sentiment of Congress that the federal government should not intervene in the membership practices of private organizations.

As we hear discussion of local autonomy we must realize that local autonomy is diametrically opposed to the idea of a national organization. I found the words of Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, president of the University of Puget Sound, on local autonomy to be very thought provoking. He said, "Another phase which we hear so much about is local autonomy. I remember one of my professors at Oxford talking about ideals that betray. Sometimes ideas are put forth in the name of high idealism which really destroy the institutions. In many ways, I think local autonomy is such an idea. To have local autonomy ultimately means to sever your relationship with the national."

Solving the problems of today is in no way easy. No human problem is. However, all problems must be solved within a basic philosophy which will stand the test of time. Some campus situations which have seemed to defy solution have, in time, been resolved. We cannot guarantee that this will always be so, but let us hope for what Judge Learned Hand called the "ultimate supremacy of reason." Let us never, for the sake of expediency, sacrifice vital elements of fraternity strength.

New Grand Council

Grand President—Virginia Speidel Edwards. Once Jinny Edwards had to cross country three times by plane, trying to land at a snowbound installation. At convention she had such a cold that a lesser woman would have gone to bed with it. But with unflappable calm she goes about her Theta business, no matter what the circumstances, dealing wisely and well with all problems.

Coming up through "the ranks" conditioned her for her job. A Theta from Alpha Tau, Cincinnati, she is a former alumnæ president at Cincinnati, Columbus, former DP (1953-58), plus service on Grand Council since 1958 (always working with the college program), which filled her chock-full of Theta experience. Also, she likes outdoor life, bridge, antiques, reading AND her two grandchildren, particularly the grandchildren. She lives in Columbus, Ohio.

Grand Vice-President, College Program—Eleanor Conly Hunt. Once as an area rec chairman trying to get a recommendation, Eleanor says that she got a husband on the long distance phone who seemed vague as to whether his wife was a Theta, wherewith Eleanor's husband muttered "How could he be married to one and not know it?" Fred Hunt has known about Theta for many years because Eleanor has been successively a DP (1959-62) and a GC member-at-large (1962-66). An initiate of Alpha Theta at Texas, Eleanor is a native Texan, never expected to leave that state, but is now a "native" Washingtonian (D.C. that is) after traveling about when her husband was in the foreign service. She likes gardening and tennis, as time permits, has one son, a freshman at Vanderbilt.

Grand Vice-President, Alumnæ Program—JoAnn Crites Thompson. June 12, 1966 was a red-letter day for JoAnn. This was the day Grand Convention opened—and she was there. But in absentia on the same day she was awarded her M.S. in home economics from the University of Idaho. How's that for a dual program? Seemingly able to carry a dual, triple or what-have-you program is busy JoAnn, who teaches home ec at the junior high in Moscow, Idaho, has a family of three children (the oldest, a Theta like her mother at Beta Theta, Idaho). She has been on the Beta Theta Advisory and Corporation Boards, president of the Moscow alumnæ, DP (1957-62), then GC member-at-large, 1962-66. Her work has been mostly with alumnæ, a field in which she continues.

Grand President Edwards and Vice-President McCelvey start second terms while Vice-Pres. Hunt and Thompson move up from members-at-large. Vice-Pres. Hood returns to Council after a two year "sabbatical."

Grand Vice-President, Finance Program—Opal Marshall McCelvey. Opal's main concern in Theta is to keep a close check on housing. But she would be the first to admit that her own house doesn't see her too often. She and her husband like to travel and have criss-crossed Texas and gone into Mexico in recent trips. Opal now lives in Fort Worth, claims Alpha Theta, Texas, as her Theta chapter as does her daughter. Opal was on hand and helped with the installation of Gamma Psi at Texas Christian, has taken her turn as president of both Dallas and Fort Worth alumnae, was a DP (1955-60), GC member-at-large (1960-64), now starts her second term as a vice-president. The most recent count on housing shows ten Theta chapters remodeling or building. Opal could be likened to the old lady in the shoe, who had so many children she didn't know what to do, but Opal does know what to do!

Grand Vice-President, Service Program—Virginia Ford Hood. Anyone less like a "witch" than Virginia Hood would be hard to find. But she relates that being a DP witch for one evening was a great icebreaker. All right; if we have to deal with a witch, we'd take VHood any day! This was the way the Beta Iota, Colorado, Thetas felt who called on her unexpectedly at her Oklahoma City home (they were attending a Colorado football game there) and found her on Halloween eve passing out "trick and treats" in a witch's costume. Their subsequent conversations about Theta were not deterred, costume or no. A Theta from Alpha Omicron, Oklahoma, (as is her daughter), Virginia has been president of the Oklahoma City alumnae, a DP (1957-60), and member-at-large on GC, 1960-64. During 1964-66 she was Foundation Membership Drive chairman, now returns to Theta's service program.

MEMBERS-AT-LARGE

Administrative Committee—Jane Van Sickel Clemons. Jane probably has the most unique of all Theta officer hobbies: figure skating. Not only does she skate herself, she is on the committee for the National Figure Skating Competitions to be held in her hometown of Omaha in 1967. She is starting her second term as member-at-large in Theta, is a Rho, Nebraska, chapter member, a past president of the Omaha alumnae, a past DP (1959-64) and has two Theta daughters.

Administrative Committee—Martha Ann Smith White. Martha says she will never forget the Grand Convention Niké service. She lost one of her contact lenses, didn't find it until just before Niké's end. With or without her lenses, however, she looks sharply at Theta with a mind that was trained in journalism at Washington University-St. Louis. She joined Alpha Iota chapter there, now has been taken from her job as district president to become a member-at-large. At home in Portland, Ore., she served five years on the local school board.

College Committee—Jane Brokaw Gallup. Ever meet a Theta hitchhiker? Jane Gallup has been one—with ex-Grand Council member Florence Fuller by her side, when they ran out of gas on the freeway while out on Theta business! Jane's Theta business has been extensive since she joined Alpha Lambda at Washington-Seattle. She lives in Seattle, has been rush adviser, Advisory Board chairman and co-chairman of the building committee at Washington, a DP during 1961-66.

College Committee—Janice Richardson Schmuck. Janice's name is the one you see on all of the announcements for the colonization of new Theta chapters. She has been busy as a member-at-large since 1964, is still busy! A member of Gamma deutron chapter at Ohio Wesleyan, she has been on their House Corporation board since 1954. Her major interests have been in the Methodist Church and in Ohio Wesleyan. She was given special honors in spring 1966 both by Theta at OWU and by the college for her efforts. She has a Theta daughter.

College Committee—Florence McDonagh Scott. Florence is sure Thetas are VIP's since in the early days of her service as a DP she watched a plane being held up 20 minutes waiting for two Thetas to arrive. A resident of London, Ontario, Canada, Florence became a Theta at Gamma Epsilon, Western Ontario, has served her chapter as Advisory Board chairman and on the House Corporation. She has been president of the London alumnae. Her hobby: horseback riding.

Alumnae Committee—Elynor Harter Hendrickson. A Theta is never at a loss to know what to do, even when, as in Elynor's case, she was presented with a large corsage of mums which she had to tolerate all during a chapter dinner and a Dean of Students' speech. You see, she's allergic to mums! She is a Theta from Beta Omega, Colorado College, lives in Grand Forks, N.D., where she was alumnae president, also chairmanned the Advisory Board for Alpha Pi, North Dakota, for many years. She became a DP in 1963. She is an enthusiastic golfer, has a Theta daughter.

Alumnae Committee—Wilma Burkart Metzger. "Willie" has a sense of humor, contends that "funny things just sort of happen" to her. Found it both funny and romantic when she was met in the rain on a DP visit by one Theta under a black umbrella, another under a gold one. Willie is a member of Alpha Chi, Purdue, has been president of the Dayton, Ohio, Alumnae Chapter, a DP since 1963. With two small children is still PTA-ing and Cub Scout-ing and room mother-ing.

Finance Committee—Gertrude Collins Levis. Gertrude starts her second term as a member-at-large. She is a Theta from Psi, Wisconsin, now living in Rockford, Illinois, and has spent her time popping in and out of Wisconsin to work for and with Gamma Lambda chapter at Beloit. She has been Advisory Board chairman, rush adviser, House Corporation president, building chairman, besides helping to organize this chapter. She became a DP in 1960.

Finance Committee—Patricia Fowell Pratt. Admitting that life is never dull in Theta jobs, Patricia Pratt frankly wonders what will happen to her on Grand Council! She was a Theta at Lambda, Vermont, now lives in West Hartford, Conn. She headed the Thetas in Hartford, when they were a club and later a chapter, was Advisory Board chairman at Gamma Zeta, Connecticut, and a DP. She works as a "Jill of all Trades" at Bushnell Memorial Hall, Univ. of Connecticut.

Finance Committee (on loan from the Service Committee)—Marge Stocker Stallings. Marge considers running into old Theta friends in the course of Theta travels a great reward for the work done. She is an Alpha Chi, Purdue, Theta, has headed alumnae in northern New Jersey and in Atlanta, Georgia, (where she now lives). She was Georgia state chairman, 1959-63 and became a DP in 1963. She has a Theta daughter, who was married just before convention.

CONVENTION FUN NIGHT

TOP: Convention managers and executive committee throw money around! BELOW: Fishermen three (real fish, caught offshore) and a clown. Other groups winning acclaim—Central Office Calypso Capers, past officers' Protest March, traveling secretary's See USA.

Determined to have "fun in the sun," Grand Council's skit portrayed the carefree officers and members-at-large dancing the limbo, growing long hair beachcomber style, learning to play the guitar, aspiring to scuba diving, watching the crab races while—their tired, tired president (left) was forced to carry their tote bags for them along with carrying all her other responsibilities which (as shown) weighed her down. Dizzy paper dresses worn fitted skit's mood.

Ask Betty Snider—Because Alpha Gamma Thetas at Ohio State had for so many years found that to get the answers to Theta questions all they had to do was "Ask Betty Snider," some of them decided to turn the question around. When Betty, who has just retired as Ohio State Permanent Alumnæ Secretary after 14 years, sent her yearly letter to alumnæ this spring, a note was enclosed (without Betty's knowledge) to "ask" Alpha Gamma alumnæ to contribute to a fund to send Betty to her first convention. The request was answered with great generosity and Betty came to Bahama with all expenses paid. Betty has served Theta in many ways, among them as Ohio State chairman (10 years), treasurer of the Alpha Gamma House Corporation (9 years), president of the Columbus alumnæ. At Grand Convention she pitched right in helping with The Kite. She is shown in pic with Julia Rains Nusken (left), Columbus alumnæ president and delegate, who sparked the fund appeal along with Janet Lowman Fox and Molly Morris Anderson . . . With this we close the 1966 convention story, leaving you to think on this tale of true Theta love.

AWARDS $9,400 IN FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS FOR 1966

Martin F. Palmer Fellowship, $3000 for study in Speech Therapy at the Institute of Logopedics

This 1966 Foundation Fellowship was named for Dr. Palmer, founder and builder of the Institute. His greatness was acknowledged in announcing the award at Grand Convention: "When Kappa Alpha Theta Fraternity adopted the Institute of Logopedics as its national philanthropy in 1946, a strong link was forged between Theta and the Institute." This link was continually strengthened through the close fellowship of bringing to reality Dr. Martin's dream for the Institute. "His determination to help the speech-handicapped inspired Thetas everywhere to respond with enthusiasm and devotion."

Recipient of the fellowship, Judith Ann Borman, earned her masters degree in Audiology this past June from Wichita State University. In September she plans to enter the field of Applied Clinical Research at the Institute of Logopedics.

Helen Spalding Groff International Fellowship, $2500

This 1966 International Fellowship is named in memory of Helen Groff. Helen was initiated in Theta in 1908 at Phi Chapter, Stanford University. She was an enthusiastic member of Theta until her death in Palo Alto, in 1962. A bequest of $5000 to the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation made this scholarship possible.

Bangalore Bharathi, South Kanara, India, presently enrolled in the Harvard-Radcliffe Graduate School, with this grant will be able to continue her study in the field of Applied Physics majoring in Electro Magnetic Theory. After completing her work at Harvard, Miss Bharathi expects to teach in an engineering college in her native India.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

The Scholarship Committee for the Foundation, chaired by Wilma Trost Shattuck, Psi, included Marian Yerkes Bedford, Lambda; Charlotte Fairbanks Mason, Alpha Iota; Lucy Ann Balch Wallace, Alpha; Letitia Mayer Williams, Psi. They proudly present the following winners:

Special Undergraduate Award—$300 to a Student in Logopedics

This award, given annually through LINK by Washington, D. C. Alumnae Chapter, KΑΘ was given for the second time to Sue Leatherbury. This will be her senior year at Wichita State University. Sue is an outstanding student with special aptitude in her chosen fields. Her major subjects (she has two) are Elementary Education and Logopedics, and her minor is Music. She is a member of Sigma Alpha Eta, honorary Logopedics fraternity, and an active participant in the choir and youth groups of her church.

$600 Scholarships for Graduate Study Were Awarded to Six Outstanding Thetas

Sandra Kay Eade, Gamma Epsilon

Sandra has been an outstanding student during her four years at the University of Western Ontario and graduated this May with honors in Psychology. She has been accepted at Ohio State University where she will pursue her masters degree in Industrial Psychology. She is a conscientious and enthusiastic Theta and served Gamma Epsilon as Vice President, Efficiency Chairman, Panhellenic Delegate, and as Chapter President in her senior year.

Joanna Fry, Beta Theta

Joanne will take her graduate work in English at the University of Arizona—her goal to teach English at High School or Junior College level. The Dean of Women at Idaho says: "She has the attributes we are looking for in future teachers. She is competent in the skills and knowledge required of a good teacher and also competent in the area of human relations." As a member of Beta Theta, her influence has been significant. Having served twice as interim president, she elected to serve as Vice-President in her senior year in order to work closely with the pledges. Her superior grades and participation in campus activities brought election to Mortar Board.

Juanita Lee Goodman, Beta Beta

One day we may add to our roster another Theta Dean of Women, for Juanita has been encouraged to pursue this goal. Her immediate objective, however, is a Ph.D. in History which will permit her to teach at college level. Juanita was initiated in 1952 at Randolph-Macon, where her mother had been a Theta. A Phi Beta Kappa, she graduated in 1955 with honors in Bible from Southwestern in Memphis. Juanita was Director of Christian Education in the Presbyterian Church and a member of the Department of Religion at Southwestern. She received her master's degree in 1961 from Duke University. At Vanderbilt, she has just completed her first year toward her Ph. D.

Carol Lynn Kurtz, Gamma Theta

Carol will go to Cornell University this fall to continue her interest in nutrition with emphasis on Public Health. Her record at Carnegie Tech. was brilliant. An excellent student, she was elected to three scholastic honoraries: Cwens (Sophomore), Phi Tau Gamma (Junior), Omicron Nu (Senior) and to Mortar Board. A versatile girl, she held several offices on Panhellenic Council; served on the technical staff for the college yearbook; tutored in Chemistry and Biology; acted as student counselor; worked as a life guard; wrote for the Carnegie Technical. She served her Theta chapter as Rush Chairman and as president in her senior year.

Judy Jean Orth, Alpha Omicron

The girl who goes through four years of college with a 3.86 grade average out of a possible 4.00; who decides at an early age that her interest lies in helping those less fortunate is truly exceptional. This is Judy Orth. Her graduate work in Speech Therapy at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center will train her to become a Speech Pathologist in a clinic, hospital, or school system. At Oklahoma, Judy was elected to Tassels (junior honorary); to Mortar Board and to the President's and Dean's Honor Rolls every semester. She served her chapter as Marshall, Norman Rush Chairman and Standards Chairman.

Ann C. Skinner, Alpha Chi

Ann's letter to the scholarship committee, stating her purpose and plan for the future, introduced a charming, mature, conscientious Theta. Others described her service and devotion to her college and fraternity as the "ultimate" in achievement; a distinguished student; a leader in campus activities; a contributing member of Mortar Board; Vice President of Panhellenic; President of her pledge class; President of her chapter. Ann will do her first year of graduate work in Speech Pathology at the University of Washington in preparation for college teaching. Ann's mother is a Theta, too.

LINK Activities Report—was given by Elizabeth Whalton Little, one of her famous "flannel board talks." The art conceived by Mrs. Little to explain the Foundation's activities—Founders' Memorial Scholarship Fund, Institute of Logopedics, Foster Parents Plan, DePauw Memorial Library—was executed by Sue Whalton Roberts (Beta Nu) and Susie B. Whalton (Delta Theta).

1966-67 MEMBERSHIP DRIVE

Kick-off at Grand Convention

The LINK Table with various members to answer questions and take new memberships got off to a good start at convention under the able direction of Virginia Hood. There were gold tags and copies of Fraternity-Foundation Review for all new members—Thetas, Theta husbands and Theta friends. All are eligible for membership in your Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation.

Learn From the Winners—in planning your membership campaign for LINK, you may be able to use these free successful ideas:

The Lafayette System—provided unexpected dividends. The city was divided into areas; in each area, a coffee meeting was held at the home of a Theta in that area. In addition to putting Lafayette in first place in the 1965-66 LINK membership column, local Thetas got better acquainted and Alumnae Chapter membership increased.

Travelers

Since 1959 Theta's traveling secretaries have traveled by air, train or bus to each of our college chapters. This fall two recent graduates packed their suitcases for Theta.

Mitchell, South Dakota, is the starting point of Ruth Ann Ellwein, Alpha Rho, South Dakota. A Dean's List scholar, Ruth Ann's presidential duties were shared by Alpha Rho, the college Press Club and the National Society of Guidon, an honorary. In addition she was a member of Alpha Lambda Delta and Mortar Board. Editorial assignments on The Magazine, the yearbook and the student newspaper and service on the AWS and Panhellenic Councils took up her "spare" time. At the 1966 Grand Convention Ruth received honorable mention for the Theta Leadership Award.

Theta's second traveler, Sharon Anne Spooner, was born in Kittery, Maine, but has traveled much of her life with her Navy father. Sharon received her B.S. in physics in 1965 from the College of William and Mary where she was twice treasurer and named outstanding junior of Beta Lambda chapter. Sigma Pi Sigma, the physics honorary of which she was president, and Phi Beta Kappa were among her outstanding achievements. In June 1966 Sharon received her M.A. in education from Stanford University.—ELEANOR HUNT, grand vice-president.

University of Alabama

Grand Council is happy to announce that Kappa Alpha Theta colonized our Delta Omicron chapter at the University of Alabama October 3-9, 1966. Alumnae are requested to send recommendations on qualified girls who are unaffiliated and are attending the University to Mrs. Fred C. Schmuck, 384 Richards Rd., Columbus, Ohio 43214, national membership chairman.

Thank You and Best Wishes

Welcoming new officers (page 22) is always a pleasure, but saying good-bye to those who retire leaves us sad. Thanks and good wishes to the following who retired at the Bahama Grand Convention: Norma Anderson Jorgensen, Josephine Brossard Stansfield, Jane Campbell Krohn, all vice-presidents. Also members-at-large Florence Buck Fuller, Marion Hedden Hinderer, Ruth Hill Wilber, Dorothy Whitehurst Heard and Elaine Lossman Ivie.

Centennial

"Theta's strong and hale and hearty/Theta's going to have a party/To mark her fruitful hundred years/Time for thanks, time for cheers/Time to stuff these piggy banks/In 1970 you'll give thanks."

This poem, read at the 1966 Grand Convention, and the piggy banks (see below) for Centennial pennies which were included in each convention goer's tote bag, served to kick off the long-awaited Theta 100th anniversary celebration which will take place in 1970.

Two who will be working hard on the Centennial are Carol Green Wilson, Theta historian (left in pic), and Hazel Baird Lease, past Grand President and Centennial chairman of memorabilia. Meeting at convention the two talked over plans and assembled their piggy banks (which came flat in sheet-form), urged others to start saving money in the banks for the big Centennial convention.

The HONORARIES

ACCORDING TO THETAS at Beta Delta chapter at the University of Arizona, "Spring fever was temporarily forgotten on Women's Day" in May when the announcements were made of elections to honor groups on that campus. Looking far from feverish, unless it would be from happiness, is Connie Graham, who is shown in the picture being tapped for Mortar Board. The surprising thing is that everyone around her looks just as pleased as she is.

This brings out the fact that honors to one have a way of spreading their joy and meriting appreciation from everyone around. The underclassmen are inspired to go ahead and do better, hopeful of honors to come; a sorority chapter feels honored and shares the pride of the one who worked so hard and was so rewarded; faculty members feel repaid, since work put forth has brought forth such fruit of achievement, often with their help and guidance; families are sure that whatever has happened came about because there was that faith and trust and training in the early years at home.

Thus Thetas whose names appear in this honor section can know that their joy is shared, their honor appreciated, by many more.

Honor Societies

edited by Barbara Fuller Gilson
Gamma, Butler

◆ Seventy-four Theta chapters reported on election of their members to honor groups for the 1965-66 biennium. Early bird reporters were Vermont, New Mexico, Miami, Butler, Texas Tech, in that order. And pardon me if I crow a little about Gamma, Butler (see page 42), which not only has more girls in honor groups this year than any other chapter, but whose girls also were elected to more honor groups than any other. Likewise, Butler topped everyone else, in the 1962 reports and has been 3rd, 5th and 6th in other recent years. A fine record! Congratulations to Butler and to all chapters whose members brought them honor.—BARBARA FULLER GILSON.

Convention Chit-Chat

♦ The wide area covered by the Grand Bahama Hotel with its interlocking one-story units was memorialized in verse by none other than ex-Grand Treasurer Flivver Little:

*This is not a complaint but I do recommend/
 That if ever again we come to West End/Those sharp little carts like the golfers all use/They'll save not only muscles but even our shoes./I counted the steps from the desk to my room/
 When I tell you the number I hope you won't swoon/But to be very truthful, there are 543/
 And that takes its toll of an old gal like me.*

♦ Undaunted by the complexities of journeying to the Bahamas at the ripe age of 93, Grace A. Johnson (see page 14), Lambda, Vermont, dismissed the hazards of traveling over the ocean from West Palm Beach, Florida to West End with the wry comment that she wasn't worried; in college, she'd been on the crew!

♦ Fifty-year Theta Ruth Lucas Adams of Ft. Lauderdale was the only convention attendant from inactive Epsilon chapter at Wooster.

♦ Hurricane Alma, first of the season, which turned up earlier than hurricanes usually do, disrupted travel for a few early-bird-officer Thetas but switched its route before the bulk of Theta travelers were due at West End. However, Lake Worth resident Ruth Nolan Phelps, Alpha Omicron, Oklahoma, and her houseguest, Madeline Folk Minas, Beta, Indiana, with husbands, had to pin down everything that was loose around the Phelps' in deference to Alma before they took off for convention.

★ Marion Whipple Garrettson served as president of Gamma District of Theta before being elected grand president. During her term of office (1905-07) she saw the chartering of Alpha Iota at Washington-St. Louis, Alpha Kappa at Adelphi and the re-chartering of Gamma at Butler. The 1907 convention, under her leadership, saw adoption of the coat-of-arms, seal, flag and pledge pin and set standards for the fraternity badge. She was one of our younger presidents: She postponed her marriage for a week to install Alpha Theta at Texas in 1904, left a six-weeks-old baby at home to attend the 1907 convention. A three-generation Theta family, she had two Theta daughters, two Theta granddaughters.

Convention Chit-Chat

♦ Table conversation at convention meals whenever any Topeka, Kansas, Thetas were around or anyone was present from the Washburn Theta chapter concerned the June 1966 tornado at Topeka. Scarcely a building on the Washburn University campus was left undamaged. On "sorority row" the Delta Gamma, Zeta Tau Alpha and Theta houses were badly hit (the Theta house will have to be razed and re-built). However, the tornado "lifted" when it came to the Alpha Phi house and left it unharmed.

♦ Presented with special medallions for long service "over and beyond the call of duty" were Evelyn Tunncliffe and Flivver Little, pioneers in the Theta Foundation. Both are former members of Theta's Grand Council.

♦ Speaker Tom Clark had traveled over 10,000 miles—from California to Boston to the Bahamas and heavens knows where else—in the ten days before he arrived to give his speech at the Theta convention.

♦ A pithy comment from Marjorie Christiansen's speech: Sarah Lawrence girls like all the rules we have—except those we enforce!

♦ Theta husbands were big helps, as judges for contests and distributing The Kite.

ARE YOU an undergraduate Theta (junior or senior), who is having to stop school because of a shortage of funds?

ARE YOU a Theta alumna wanting to go back to college for that degree that you promised yourself and your family when you quit school?

ARE YOU a Theta graduate needing a higher degree to further yourself in your career?

ARE YOU a Theta in one of the fields that requires special courses over and above your present degree?

ARE YOU a Theta teacher who must take a refresher course?

Above are given some reasons why Thetas are so grateful for the Kappa Alpha Theta Loan Fund. Loans of from $50.00 to $500 are obtainable at 3% interest. These loans are repayable two years after graduation or completion of courses and are kept in strictest confidence.

THIS FUND is Theta's way of helping you help yourself. It is an expression of confidence in the sincerity of your desire for an education. It was made possible by delegates to the 1905 Convention who wanted to make sure that, no matter what the future held, you would have a chance for that education.

Write now and get information about the fund from

Mrs. Walter Vaaler, Kappa Alpha Theta, 1580 Sherman Ave., Evanston, Ill. 60201

To Theta Parents:

Your daughter's magazine is sent to her home address while she is in college and we hope that you enjoy seeing it. But if she is no longer in college and is not living at home, please send her new permanent address to Kappa Alpha Theta, Suite 342, 1580 Sherman Avenue, Evanston, Illinois, 60201.

Mrs. John C. Gallup A Lambda

Seattle, Washington 98105

Much of the glory of a Grand Convention stems from the college Thetas. Alumnae enjoy watching them and recalling their own school days. The girls themselves give verve and enthusiasm to the slightest project, as in the one shown here. Set at work before convention lettering posters these girls went at it with a will. Obviously serious about all of convention, college girl reactions will be shared with their chapters this fall.
